Version 1: August 2006

Our Aims

Connect Housing Association is committed to the provision of high quality services that put our customers first. We aim to be easy to contact, helpful, responsive and efficient. We intend to listen to customers' views and to act on suggestions that will improve our services.

Connect Staff

We will:

- Always be polite and helpful.
- Offer a professional and courteous service.
- Treat all people fairly and with respect.
- Listen to your problems and explain our services to you.
- Be honest with you when we are unable to provide a service and explain why we cannot help you.
- Be well informed and trained to provide an efficient service.
- * Use interpreting services if English is not your first language.
- Carry identification and give you our names.
- Respect the privacy of customers and treat all enquiries confidentially. We will disclose confidential information only if you have given us specific permission or if we have a legal obligation to do so.
- Try to determine the cause of your frustration if you are angry or upset. However, if the conversation involves personal abuse or threats, we will end the conversation.

Service Standards

Service standards tell you what you can expect from Connect Housing. We want to come up to our service standards and, to check this out, all standards marked with a * are measured and monitored. However, if you spot that we fall short of the standards that we have described, please contact a member of the Community Services Team or the Service Improvement Team and we promise to investigate your concerns. Or, alternatively, you can make a formal complaint (see Service Standard Leaflet 2 or the “How to Make a Complaint” leaflet) if you believe that this is more helpful.

We will review our service standards every year with your help and involvement. We will consult you in a variety of ways to make sure our services meet what you expect. We are committed to the use of external quality standards and independent assessment of what we do. We are also committed to constantly working on our service standards so that you regularly experience improvements in what we do.

Reception

We will:

- Keep our reception area clean and tidy.
- Display our opening hours.
- * If you call without having an appointment, we will tell you how many people are waiting in the queue ahead of you. We aim to see you as soon as possible and we monitor waiting times to try to continually improve our services.
- If you call with an appointment, we aim that you will see an appropriate member of staff within five minutes.
- Provide an interview room for you to speak to a member of staff in private.
- Provide assistance and facilities for people with mobility problems.
- Provide hearing loop facilities at our office if you are hard of hearing.
- Under certain circumstances, we may be able to arrange to visit you at your home by a mutually convenient appointment.

Telephones

We will:

- Identify ourselves when answering the phone.
- Aim to answer all telephone calls within five rings.
- * Monitor our phone system in order to improve access to our phone services.

Letters and Emails

We will:

- Reply to all letters within 10 working days. If you supply us with a stamped self-addressed envelope, we will acknowledge receipt of your letter. If we cannot give a full reply within 10 days, we will let you know the reason for the delay and when you can expect a full reply.

- Reply to all e-mails within 10 working days.
- Make sure all letters and emails written to you are clear and jargon free.
- Always tell you who is dealing with your enquiry.

Complaints

We will:

- * Encourage you to give us complaints, compliments and comments, and use them as a source of learning about what we are doing well and where we can improve.
- Try to resolve any issue causing you dissatisfaction as soon as you bring it to our attention. If you remain dissatisfied, we recognise your right to have your problem treated as a formal complaint.
- * Acknowledge complaints within two working days of receipt.
- * Provide a full response to complaints within 10 working days whenever possible. When this is not possible e.g. because further investigation is required or because of key staff absences, we will write and tell you and let you know when you can expect a full response.
- Give you the name of the person dealing with your complaint.
- Accept complaints made in person, in writing, by telephone, email and minicom.
- Provide you with clear information on how to make a complaint and provide assistance for you to make a complaint if you would like this.
- Investigate complaints fully and fairly.
- Inform you of other steps you can take if you remain dissatisfied.
- Report and publish information about complaints we have received.

- Provide leaflets explaining the Complaints Policy at all our office sites.
- Offer advice on other independent agencies who may be able to help.

What we ask of you

We request that you:

- Are polite when speaking with staff.
- Do not use abusive language or threatening behaviour. If you persist in doing this, you may be asked to leave or we may put down the phone.
- Read the information that we send you and provide the information that we request. If you have any problems with this, please ask us for help.
- Be patient with us – we do our best to keep waiting times to a minimum.
- Keep to appointments with us when these have been made or tell us in advance if you need to change the appointment time.
